A Rezoning request is presented to the Planning Commission for recommendation of approval or denial to the City Council. The City Council is charged with the duty of either approving or denying the Rezoning request. The Rezoning request must go through the Planning Commission process for a recommendation, through the legally required public notice.
advertising process, and then finally to the City Council for approval or denial.

According to Alabama State Law, the Hartselle City Council has the authority to adopt and amend the Zoning Ordinance including reclassifying the zoning of property. The State code requires that the Planning Commission must first consider the request, hold a public meeting, and make a recommendation to the City Council. In addition to notices posted at City Hall prior to the Planning Commission meeting, two legal notices will appear in a local newspaper prior to the City Council meeting. Notices published prior to the City Council meeting must appear at least 15 days prior to consideration of the zoning amendment.

The Planning Commission holds regular meetings the first Tuesday of each month. The report and recommendations of the Planning Commission shall be advisory only and shall not be binding upon the City Council. In Hartselle, rezoning requests are automatically submitted to the City Clerk to be considered by the City Council at the next possible meeting. Therefore, the appeal process is automatic to this level.
