

Development Handbook:

A Guide to Subdivision Development, Annexation,
Rezoning, and Site Plans in the City of Hartselle

Department of Development
City of Hartselle, Alabama

Introduction

The purpose of this Handbook is to aid citizens and developers in their understanding of the requirements for the subdividing and/or consolidating of tracts of land, development of full scale subdivisions, replating of existing lots, annexation into the corporate city limits of Hartselle and rezoning of property within the city limits.

The Handbook contains applications, fee schedules, definitions and process flowcharts. These items should enable the citizen and developer alike to understand the processes and timeframes for the above mentioned land use actions.

*Please be advised that Hartselle Utilities is a separate entity from the City of Hartselle and may have additional requirements. In order to prevent processing delays, applicants are encouraged to contact Hartselle Utilities directly for information on their policies.

25	26	27 Revised submittals due	28	29	30	31

Timeline may differ from typical. Always confirm dates with city staff early in the planning process.

Certificates

1. Certificate to Subdivide:

Used ONLY for dividing or reconfiguring one or more tracts into a maximum of three tracts.

2. Certificate to Consolidate:

Used ONLY for combining two or more tracts into one tract.

A certificate may be used in lieu of a formal plat ONLY if the subject property is not part of a previously platted subdivision. Property previously included within a platted subdivision must be submitted as a replat. Under no circumstances will the use of a certificate result in the creation of more than THREE (3) tracts of land. Under no circumstances will a certificate result in a tract of land that does not meet minimum zoning ordinance requirements.

Under no circumstances will a lot created by certificate be further divided to create additional lot(s) within twelve (12) months from the original certificate. (Not applicable to commercial zoned property)

After approval of the certificate and collection of all required signatures, the applicant is responsible for recording the certificate with the Judge of Probate.

Process: Same as for "Replat."

Application: There is no application for a Certificate. It is recommended that the applicant choose a professional surveyor or engineer to prepare the document, and discuss the proposal with city staff prior to submittal.

Major Subdivision

Definition:

Any subdivision containing FOUR (4) or more lots, and/or involving the construction of infrastructure. Major Subdivision process consists of three phases: Layout Plan, Engineering Plan and Final Plat.

Process:

Annexation

Definition/Conditions Required:

Annexation is the acceptance of one or more parcels into the city limits of Hartselle. To be eligible for annexation, several conditions must be met: 1) all owners of all properties involved must petition for annexation; 2) the area being considered for annexation must be contiguous to (touching) the existing corporate city limits on at least one side (it is preferred that the area be contiguous on more than one side); and 3) the area does not lie within the city limits or police jurisdiction of any other municipality.

An annexation request is presented to the Planning Commission for recommendation of approval or denial to the City Council. The City Council is charged with the duty of either approving or denying the annexation request. The annexation request must go through the Planning Commission process for a recommendation, through the legally required public notice advertising process for zoning of the property, and then to the City Council for approval or denial.

Process:

Applicant(s) submit Petition for Annexation, $150.00 application fee (if applicable), and other required materials (see petition) by the second Tuesday of the month.

Planning Commission meets on the first Tuesday of the following month to forward a recommendation on the request for annexation and zoning to the City Council.

Legally-required public notice of the associated zoning ordinance is published in the local newspaper for two consecutive weeks. Applicant(s) are invoiced for the actual cost of this required advertising, with full payment due upon receipt.

Legally-required fifteen day waiting period following second public notice (for public comment).

City Council votes on approval/denial of annexation request following public hearing at its next regularly scheduled meeting.

PETITION FOR ANNEXATION INTO THE

PETITIONER, PLEASE READ CAREFULLY BEFORE SIGNING

The undersigned, being the sole owner(s) of the hereinafter described property, such property being contiguous to the corporate limits of Hartselle, Alabama, and such property not lying within the corporate limits or police jurisdiction of any other municipality, do hereby petition that said property be annexed into the City of Hartselle, Alabama.

I/We attach hereto a plat or map of such property showing its relationship to the corporate limits of the City of Hartselle. An accurate legal description that has been prepared by a licensed attorney, engineer or surveyor is also attached.

I/We have completed the attached application regarding the subject property and certify that all information provided is complete and accurate to the best of our knowledge.

I/We agree that said described property will be zoned as deemed appropriate by the Hartselle City Council to conform to the general intent of the Land Use Plan of Hartselle, which is a part of the Comprehensive Plan, adopted by the City of Hartselle Planning Commission on March 2, 2004, and understand that in ensuring such conformance the City Council may select a zoning designation different from that requested below. I/We agree to the placement of one or more signs along the public road frontage of the subject property in order to notify the public of scheduled public hearings on the zoning of the subject property.

I/We understand that in some cases, it is necessary for the street address of annexed property to be changed upon annexation in order to conform to the City of Hartselle address grid. If such a change is necessary, I/We agree to conform to the change of address upon notification by the city.

I/We agree to comply with all City Ordinances, including all required zoning and development standards for the subject property once annexed.

Rezoning

Definitions of Zone Districts:

The City of Hartselle currently utilizes the following Zoning Districts

- o AG-1 – Agricultural
- o R-1 – Residential; single-family dwellings (low density)
- o R-2 – Residential; single-family dwellings (high density)
- o R-3 – Residential; multi-family dwellings/apartments
- o R-4 – Residential; single-family semi-attached (townhomes)
- o R-5 – Residential; single-family patio homes
- o RP – Residential and Professional
- o B-1 – Business; local shopping (neighborhood shops)
- o B-2 – business; general business (wholesale/retail/service)
- o B-3 – Business; Central Business District (downtown)
- o B-4 – Business; interchange business (Interstate 65)
- o M-1 – Manufacturing; light industry
- o M-2 – Manufacturing; general industry
- o MIP – Medical, institutional, professional
- o PUD – Planned Unit Development

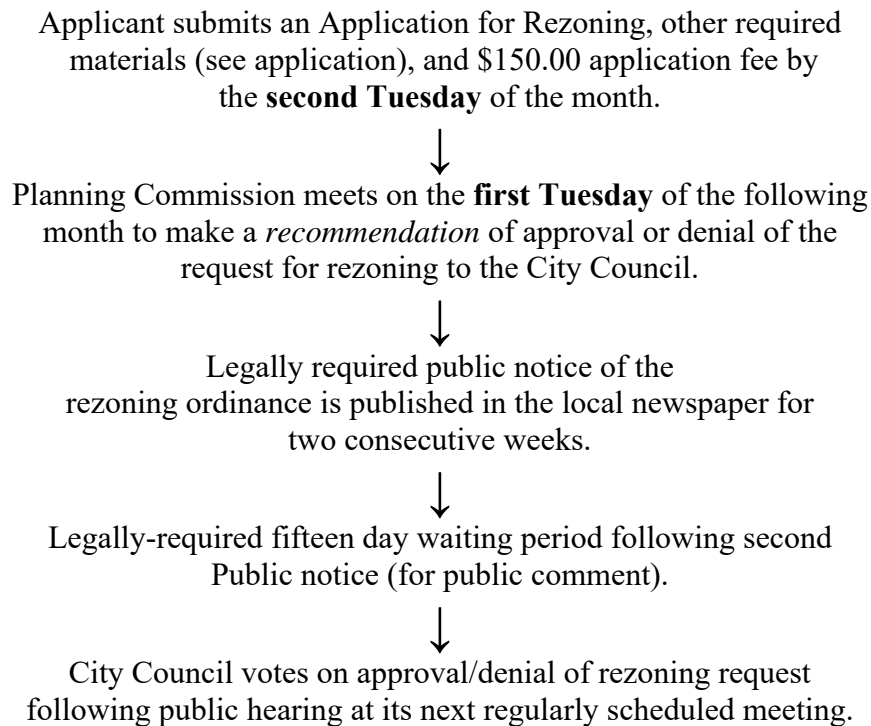

A Rezoning request is presented to the Planning Commission for recommendation of approval or denial to the City Council. The City Council is charged with the duty of either approving or denying the rezoning request. The rezoning request must go through the Planning Commission process for a recommendation, through the legally required public notice process, and then to the City Council for approval or denial.

According to Alabama state law, the Hartselle City Council has the authority to adopt and amend the Zoning Ordinance including reclassifying the zoning of property. The Alabama code requires that the Planning Commission must first consider the request, hold a public meeting, and make a recommendation to the City Council. In addition to notices posted at city hall prior to the Planning Commission meeting, two legal notices will appear in a local newspaper prior to the City Council meeting. Notices published prior to the City Council meeting must appear at least 15 days prior to consideration of the zoning amendment.

The Planning Commission holds regular meetings on the first Tuesday of each month. The report and recommendations of the Planning Commission are advisory only and not binding upon the City Council. In Hartselle, rezoning requests are automatically submitted to the city clerk to be considered by the City Council at the next possible meeting. Therefore, the appeal process is automatic to this level.
